DETAILED ACTION

The examiner acknowledges the amendment filed March 16, 2006.

Claim Objections

Claim 9 is objected to because of the following informalities: claim 9 should recite claim 1 not "claim1". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 3-8, 10-12, 14-28, 30, and 32-43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Echauz et al. US Patent Number 6,678,548 B1.

See previous office action for details of the rejection. In regards to claims 33-43 the previous office action provides sufficient disclosure to reject the claims, as they are rejected on substantiality the same basis.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed March 16, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Art Unit: 3736

First, in paragraph [0003] of the specification the applicant states a neurological event is an activity that is indicative of a nervous system disorder. It is the Examiner's position the probabilistic framework for predicting and detecting seizure onsets in the brain is within the definition provided by applicant. As such the fact that "Echaz provides no reason to do post analysis of the detected seizure" is not given patentable weight since the applicant does not claim it. Additionally, Echaz specifically teaches the use of a feature extraction portion 40. (column 4, lines 26-50)

Secondly, it is the examiner's position that the scoring occurs via the use of the feature library of features. (column 4, lines 26-50).

Lastly in regards to claim 11, the applicant argues Echaz does not provide a relative severity minimum, a lowest severity score. At the very least when Echaz stores it's first reading it will be the lowest reading score.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2 and 9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
